The auditions will take place on 12th and 13th February 2024 at 9 a.m. at the Palacio de la Ópera de A Coruña.

The order of participation of the candidates will be made by drawing lots prior to the start of the auditions to ensure the anonymity of the candidates in the first round of the audition, which will be behind a screen.

In each round, the appearance of the applicants will be summoned in person, excluding those who do not appear at the act.

At least the first round will be carried out behind a screen.

During the audition behind the screen, each applicant shall adhere to the strict performance of the program determined by the Jury and may not emit sounds, noises and/or words that may allow or facilitate their identification to the members of the Jury. The Jury may, at any time during the participation of an applicant, interrupt the performance and finalise the execution of the work or interpreted fragment, when in its opinion the aptitude or ineptitude of the applicant is sufficiently accredited.

Each applicant must appear for the (test) audition with the same instruments with which they will play in the Orchestra in the case of being selected, which can only be replaced by instruments of a higher category.

The Consortium will provide an accompanying pianist for the auditions, to those who request it during the period for submitting applications.

Members of the public will only be able to access the hall in which the auditions take place at the beginning of each round and will not be allowed access during the performance.

NINE. List of Successful Applicants, Presentation of Documentation, and Signing of Contracts.

Once the qualification of the applicants has been completed, the Jury will present to the competent authority a list of the applicants who have passed the selection process, in order of their score. This list will be published on the noticeboard of the Consortium and on its website.

The Qualifying Jury may propose that the selection process be declared void if there is no candidate who has passed all the rounds.

It will not be possible to formalise a larger number of contracts than the number of places being offered, which will be formalised by the competent body, having previously justified the conditions of capacity and requirements demanded in the audition. The contract will be indefinite with a trial period of 1 year.

In case that the candidate who has obtained the highest score failing to meet the required conditions, abandoning, not being renewed after the first year, or not becoming a full-time employee, the post will be awarded to the next applicant in line who has passed the selection process.

The list of applicants who have passed the selection process will be valid for a period of 24 months.

During the term of the contract, the person hired will be registered in the General Social Security System, in accordance with current legislation; the basic working relations are governed by the Basic Statute of Public Employees and the Orchestra Contract of the Consortium for the Promotion of Music.

TEN. Job Pool

All applicants who pass 2 or more rounds will be included in a job pool for future hiring, necessary to cover urgent and temporary vacancies due to sick leave, maternity leave, justified absences or in general when required by the Orchestra.

On the Management's decision, at the proposal of the Jury, the job pool will be approved with the applicants who have passed 2 or more rounds, in order of highest to lowest score. This approval will be published on the noticeboard or the website (<https://consorciopromocionmusica.sedelectronica.gal/>).

The hiring process will be made according to the order of points established in the job pool, so that when temporary coverage is to be carried out, the job will be offered to the first applicant on the list.

This request will be made by e-mail or telephone. If the first member of the list is not located, the following applicants will be contacted. Failure by a candidate on the list to reply will not be considered as waiving their right, and they will keep their place on the list for any subsequent appointments.

Members of the job pool who obtain an appointment to cover a vacancy in the OSG will be removed from the job pool, and once their hiring is complete, they will be reinstated in their corresponding position.

Any failure to accept the job offered will mean the candidate will be relegated to the final position in the job pool, unless one of the following circumstances applies:

- Childbirth, maternity leave or similar situations.
- Serious illness that prevents attendance at work, provided that it is duly accredited.
- Situation of temporary disability.
- Performance of representative public office that makes it impossible to attend work.
- Being contracted with another orchestra/company (up to a maximum of 3 calls).
- Taking a postgraduate course or similar.
- Cases of force majeure considered as such.

All of these circumstances must be duly accredited with the corresponding official documents.

The exclusion of an applicant from the job pool may occur for any of the following circumstances:

- Specific request.
- Having rejected an offer to fill a job vacancy 3 times.
- Failing to take up a position after accepting the offer for an unjustified cause.
- Having been definitively sanctioned for misconduct classified as serious or very serious.

- Failing to pass the probationary period.

If the applicant who reaches a minimum of one year of accumulated contracts, he will be temporary suspended from the job pool for a period equal to the duration of the contributory unemployment benefit derived from the time spent working in this Consortium. In this case, his status in the job pool will figure as "temporal suspension by accumulation" along with the start and finish dates of the suspension.

Similarly, the Social Jurisdiction shall be the competent Jurisdiction to resolve any disputes in relation to the effects and termination of the employment contract.
